Another successful Martinez Wine Tasting Extravaganza

by Philip Kirk and Julie Brett.

On Tuesday 12th March, the Winter Gardens, Kings Hall rang out to the sounds of clinking glasses and popping corks as the annual Martinez Wine Tasting Extravaganza splashed in to town. Now in its 8th year this popular annual charity event gives wine lovers the chance to sample some of the world's finest wines.

Over 200 wines from across the world, plus a selection of single malts, were available for tasting throughout the afternoon and evening and we were delighted that over 250 people indulged themselves a little!.

This year the proceeds were again donated to Save The Children, we raised a fantastic £1735 for the charity from ticket sales and a raffle!

Our aim was to show the people of Ilkley the quality and breadth of our portfolio and the real value for money that we supply at all price ranges. Many of the customers who attended took advantage of the 12.5% discount offered for all wine orders placed on the day

So do watch out for next year's event, it's a fantastic opportunity to sample some world class wines in a relaxed and informative environment and at the same time raise money for a good cause.

The wines on show this year, that really stood out were:-

Borsao Tinto 2012: From Campo de Borja, within the northern district of Aragon this wine is a richly fruited, smooth blend of Syrah, Grenache and Tempranillo. Despite being lauded by Robert Parker and awarded a score of 91/100 this wine is a mere £8.

£1735 raised for Save The Children

Torres Celeste Ribero Del Duero 2009:

Torres Celeste Ribero Del Duero 2009: This Tempranillo represents Torres first venture into Ribero Del Duero. It's a great success, dense black fruits enveloped in a smooth sheen of oak. Impressive complexity at a very competitive price of £13.49.

Bodegas Mano A Mano

"Manon" 2012 Vino de la Tierra:

From Don Juan country La Mancha, an intensely fruity tempranillo, chunky, spicy and enjoyably full bodied. Very satisfying and terrific value at £8.49.

Ventoux Les Amadous,

Vignerons de Caractere 2011:

Weighty southern rhone blend of Grenache and syrah. Generous black forest fruits with a good touch of spice. £9.99

Bodegas Ribas Del Cua

Privilegio Bierzo 2006:

Bierzo is home to the Mencia grape which is beginning to attract real interest. Soft and juicy black fruit, with appealing aromas of violets and toasty oak. This is a seriously well structured wine at its best with roasts and game dishes. £19.49

Spice Route Mourvedre

Swartland South Africa 2009:

Vibrant cherry tempered by wild herb and smoky aromas. Lingering plum tomato and spice on the palate. A medium bodied wine, showing firm structure balanced by fresh fruit on the finish. A forward and appealing Mourvedre, very well made at £9.99.

Indaba Chenin Blanc 2011

Western Cape South Africa:

A crisp, crowd-pleasing quaffer, packed with luscious tropical fruit, citrus and melon flavours with a touch of honey. An ideal party wine, it pairs well with almost everything at £8.49.

Cape Heights Viognier

Western Cape South Africa

2011: Vibrant, stone fruit Viognier from the Western Cape. Deliciously rich and vibrant on the palate, alive with fresh apricot flavours and a long textural finish, at only £6.49.

Bastide Saint Dominique

Roussanne IGP Mediterranee

2011 France: A crisp, dry white from the southern rhone grape Roussanne. Zingy, herby stone fruit married with fresh acidity make this wine an excellent match with seafood. £9.99

Saladini Pilastri Falero DOC

2011 Italy: This wine, which includes the rare grape varieties of Passerina and Pecorino, is delightfully lemon oil and fennel-scented, and is crisp, dry, intriguing and compelling. A wine of real character and flavour at only £7.99.

Wine price increases explained

As you are probably already aware everything is getting more expensive and unfortunately wine is heading that way too. Below are four reasons why you will not only have seen recent price climbs but why these hikes could continue.

The 2012 Vintage was one of the worst on record with parts of France, Spain & Italy's crops producing up to 60% less grapes in some regions. We are seeing 10%+ price increase at cost for young wines i.e. budget wines. At least South Africa was a good vintage!

Government Imposed Duty is now at a staggering £2.40 for a bottle of wine on the shelf. This is only going to get worse as the government are stating that whilst wine sales are buoyant the price escalator which at present is set at 2% above inflation will continue. So if you think about it what our friends in parliament are saying is that until Independent wine merchants go bankrupt they will keep putting duty up!

Transport costs have risen considerably in the last 12 months and we are now paying 5p more a bottle when shipping direct from vineyards in France, Italy and Spain.

As much of the purchasing is done in Euros and the exchange rate has seen a drop from 1.28 to 1.15 recently.

Inevitably all these factors have increased the cost of entry level wines even the country's biggest selling pub tipple Pinot Grigio has seen a 40p per bottle rise at cost!

Even with these increases Martinez are able to offer quality drinks at affordable prices. See below a selection of our budget wines, come into the shop and try a mixed 6 and you get a further 5% discount. Or Call 01943 600000 and get free delivery as well as the 5%!
