Malts & Ports

by Philip Kirk Martinez's Newest Find!

Single Malts

All our Single Malts are provided by Douglas Laing, a quality focused independent bottler. They simply buy casks directly from the distillery and mature them in their own bonded warehouses in mainland Scotland. All whiskies are bottled non chill filtered, so the natural oils and integral flavours of the spirit remain intact. Also no E150 colouring (caramel) is added to artificially make the whisky appear darker and therefore older. All bottled at no nonsense 46% or 50% for Old Malt Cask (even better!) We offer a good selection covering all the flavour spectrums from Speyside, Highlands, Island and coastal malts.

Port

For a lot of us Christmas is the only time we actually consume this seriously hedonistic and richly historic drink. How easy it is to forget the pleasures it offers for relatively little outlay. Real interest and value can be found in years which although good, a vintage wasn't declared. 1996 was such a year and we have single vineyard bottlings from Dow's. Warres and Smith Woodhouse. All drinking superbly now and available from £29-£35. Colheita Port (aged in wood, rather than bottle from a single vintage) and tawny ports are also available from the excellent houses of Niepoort and Krohn.

Ring Our Bell This Christmas!

You can now purchase wines from the shop until 11pm Tuesday-Saturday. Simply ring the bell on the front door and someone will be up from the wine bar to serve you.
